

UNIT REVIEW

UNIT NAME: _____

TIME FRAME: _____

Directions: As completely as possible answer each of the following questions. Be as detailed and specific as possible. The completed project (along with your ID cards) is due in class (typed) the day of the unit test. Failure to complete this assignment will result in a zero on the unit test.

1. Define the name of the unit.
2. What is (are) the primary contributions of the period to the course of modern history?
3. If you were a man on the streets during this time period what would be the vocabulary terms you would hear the most?
4. What are the greatest political events of the time period?
5. What is the prevailing political theory of the time and who is its spokesman?
6. Who are the philosophical spokesmen of the time? What is their point of view and what, if anything, did they write?
7. What is the greatest social issue of the time? Who is the leader of the movement and what is the outcome of this movement?
8. What is the scientific movement of the time? Who represents this movement and what did he (they) do?
9. What are the cultural advances or changes of the times? Who are the leaders of this movement? (Include art, literature music)

DON'T FORGET YOUR ID CARDS