Document Analysis Worksheet: Religion & Science

1. Type of Document

   ____________________________________________________________

2. Date of document:

   ____________________________________________________________

3. Author(s) or creator(s) of the document:

   ____________________________________________________________

4. Other information about the author(s) indicated on the document (position, title, etc.):

   ____________________________________________________________

5. For what audience was the document written?

   ____________________________________________________________

6. List two or more things the document tells you about the author's view of the physical world.

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

7. What does the author say about the relationship between religion and science?

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

8. How does (or does not) the author address the concerns of Roman Catholic Church officials as expressed in the Galileo Indictment?

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

9. How did the author stay out of trouble with church authorities? (of, if the document is by Galileo: why did he get in trouble with church authorities?)

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

---

Based on a worksheet prepared by the National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC.
© 2009-, The History Teaching Institute at The Ohio State University.