Compare/Contrast Student Paper

Directions: After reviewing the two primary sources and listening to the class discussions, please complete the following questions.

1. Describe life for a soldier on the Ohio frontier. Use specific examples taken from the primary source.

2. Compare the life of the soldier to the life of a missionary. First, list some of the things that would be the same for both.

3. Now, list some of the differences that the soldier and the missionary would have experienced.

4. List some of the disadvantages the Moravian mission would have encountered.

5. List opinions about why you think the missionary's diary is less detail oriented than the soldier's diary.
