

Created by: Linda Dils, Menlo Park Elementary School

Grade level: 4

Primary Source Citation: Fort Recovery Photographs, circa 1960-1970, Ohio Department of Development, Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development Collection, Ohio Historical Society, Audiovisual material State Archives Series 741, Box 3. Accessed at Ohio Memory:
<http://www.ohiomemory.org/cdm/ref/collection/p267401coll32/id/2157>.

Allow students, in groups or individually, to examine the photographs located at the above link while answering the questions below in order. The questions are designed to guide students into a deeper analysis of the source and sharpen associated cognitive skills.

Level I: Description

1. Does this structure look old or new?
2. How can you tell?
3. What materials were used to build this structure?

Level II: Interpretation

1. Why would someone build a structure like this?
2. Who do you think would live here?
3. Is this a good place to live?

Level III: Analysis

1. What do these pictures tell you about the natural resources available in this area?
2. How do these pictures help you to understand the relationship between the U.S. Army and the Native Americans during this time period?
3. If you were a child living in this fort what kinds of things would do during the day?

