

Underground Railroad Post Assessment and Rubric

Worksheets
5	Answers questions in complete sentences. Answers are correct and use examples from the photos. They show inferential thinking. The charts are complete.
4	Answers in complete sentences. Answers are correct and use a few examples from the materials and show no inferential thinking. The charts are complete.
3	Answers are correct but not in complete sentences. No examples from the materials are used. The charts are only partially complete.
2	Answers are incomplete and are not correct. No examples from the text are used. The charts have only one item in it.
1	No correct answers or sentences

Presentation	Of main idea and important details in reading
5	There is a main idea and two important key details.
4	There is a main idea and two non-key details.
3	There is only key details or main idea not both.
2	There is only one detail or main idea.
1	There is only one detail or main idea that is not important.